Inventory of the estate of Henry Bisbing
Deed

Adm'd the 23 July 1748

As To the Plantation or Improvement of the Said Henry Bisbyng Decade.
 we have at present set no value upon it. The Land being of the Same that is commonly called Sproegells or the German Company's Land. The Said Henry Bisbyng having long ago paid about fourteen Pounds for it to Lod. Christen Sproegel, but the whole not being paid, and no Title Deed for it. — and the whole case being already in Action before the Court now. — Besides this the Said Dec^d Henry's Mother is still living upon the place and is to have her Subsistence therefrom. . . . The Corn in the Ground Standing but indifferent, they being besides a great Family, and intend to live so together for some Time.
 They may possibly have like to sell. but easily consume the produce of the Year.
 which were the Reasons that we set no value upon the Plantation.
 Till we have further orders by Authority

Notandum: The Corn in the Ground being accounted and priced to be worth — . . . 15. Pounds.
